

ONE OF THE GAPERS

BY

ANNIE WHILES

Annie Whiles, One of the Gapers, 2015

Beech wood, oil paint, glass eyes and hand embroidery
183 x 61 x 26 cm

One of the Gapers is the picture story of a woodcarving made over two years by Annie Whiles. The Gaper was the nickname for St Copertino and refers to her long term allegiance with this patron saint of astronauts and also of a biblical story of fallen angels: The Watchers or Nephilim.

First shown at Chapter, Cardiff, July – September 2015 and Royal Academy Summer Exhibition 2018, London

www.anniewhiles.com

anniewhiles@yahoo.co.uk

Photography by Perou, Adam Chard Studio

Cuttings by Annie Whiles

Design by Fraser Muggeridge studio

Goldsmiths
UNIVERSITY OF LONDON

