With a major focus on sleep, the 4th edition of the 48-hour non-stop program brings together artists and critical producers to address an aesthetic of the unconscious. Art for Sleepers, Art by Sleepers and Art as Sleep.

SLEEP48 is a Stadtwerkstadt project conceived by Shu Lea Cheang and Matthew Fuller, who were inspired by Fuller's latest book "How to Sleep, the art, biology and culture of unconsciousness". SLEEP48, 48 hours of sleeping through active sensing, experiencing, doing and perceiving, explores the complex physiological phenomena that changes over its duration and that has different cultural and physical expressions. Programs include the lecture DEEP SLEEP and the exhibition HEROES OF SLEEP. The sonic sanitarium of SONATAS OF SLEEP/LESS offers treatments for information shock-workers. As a statement of non-architecture: SLEEP TUNNEL shows infinite sleep. SLEEP BATTLE will be monitored by Sleep Laboratory. More: The experimental setting HYPNOMACHIA, the performative ROUGH SLEEP, a SPECULATIVE SCHOOL OF SLEEP DANCE and uncanny familiar SOCIAL SLEEP VIDEOS. Own sleepy experiments can be followed up with SCHLAFGUT-BIER and SLEEP FOOD.
